

Service Learning News

2.1.10

by Amanda Kuhen

Dear Parents,

Teens for Jeans

Please keep looking in your dresser drawers or in your closet for jeans that you no longer need, or wear. The Middle School Jeans Drive continues until February 11. Laundry baskets can be found in the Preston and Firestone Lobbies. Jeans of all sizes are needed!

Old Trail School Helps Haiti

Students will be working on different fundraising service projects during the next several months. All proceeds will be donated to the American Red Cross for their humanitarian efforts in Haiti.

More details about the following projects to follow in upcoming Buffalo Bytes.

- Middle School Dodge Ball Tournament sponsored by JOOI Club
- Hearts for Haiti—individual Primary School classes fundraising

Save the Date: March 2, 2010 for the Intermediate School Craft Fair and Bake Sale

Intermediate School Advisory Council students are working with their classmates during the next few weeks to determine where they will donate the proceeds.

Serving together,

Mandy

akuhen@oldtrail.org